2025 the Guardian

By S. D. Burke

Xulon Press. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 282 pages. Dimensions: 8.5in. x 5.5in. x 1.0in. 2025 Phoenix, Arizona- 2025 Eighteen-year old star athlete Daniel Jordan must decide between following his dream to play professional soccer or a nomination to be Arizona's representative to the president's elite Guardian Corps created to carry out the president's new initiatives. Phoenix is the incubator for change. And. . . America is changing. The American president, in a power move, appoints a Council of Twelve and fifty state governors to a board replacing the Congress. Ignoring the Constitution, new laws are made. . . new initiatives adopted. As a Guardian would Daniel be guarding the freedoms that made our country great and safe Or would he be implementing initiatives already causing chaos in the everyday lives of all citizens The questions facing Daniel and his family could be your questions: What if Americans are required to join a world monetary system in which they receive an identity number to buy and sell What if in the search for world peace a one-world religion based on mutual respect causes Christians to be persecuted, churches to be closed and the Bible to be outlawed What if the government passes...
